King of all peoples, and King of all love,
Dwelling here with us, yet reigning above;
Shared You the blood that flows now in our veins,
Share still our sorrows and bear, too, our pains.
King of all love! King of all love!
With Father King and with Holy Dove.
Upon the high Cross He took all our sin,
Opened pure heaven to bring nations in.

3.
God, true Immanuel, in sinners who dwells,
High Priest and holy whose victory spells
Freedom for those who have lived in sin's chains,
Caught in their guilt and immersed in their shames.
Freed by Your love! Freed by Your love!
One with Your hosts who worship above.
Freed from all bondage, all sin and all pain;
Glory to Jesus, dear Lamb who was slain!

4.
King over powers who would rule the world,
Banners of love over us You unfurl;
Comfort our hearts as You tell us Your love,
Draw us to feast at the Marriage above.
Banners of love! Banners of love!
Christ our true Spouse unfurls them above.
Oh how our love now responds to His heart:
Husband and Lover are never apart.

5.
King of all kings and the Lord of all lords,
Bow we in wonder to hear Your great words,
Sword that smites nations and wins our poor hearts,
Love we Immanuel who never departs.
Down in our hearts! Down in our hearts!
Jesus our love who never departs.
In all Earth's travails He gives us new songs,
Sing we His glory who rights all Earth's wrongs.

6.
Son of the Father who brought us Your love,
Father of Son who transports us above,
Spirit of love of the Father and Son,
Worship we Trinity, our God as One.
Our God as One! Our God as One!
Worship we Him who is God in One.
Praise be You made Him as King over all,
Now as Your children before You we fall.

7.
Love of the Father and love of the Son,
Love of the Spirit who makes nations one.
We shall all meet in Your City of love;
Pure, we shall know You in rapture above.
Rapture above! Rapture above!
Nations shall come to know His dear love.
Wonder of healing shall know from the Tree,
Drink of the river that ever flows free.

2.
You are the King of mercy and of grace,
Reigning omnipotent in every place:
So come, O King, and our whole being sway;
Shine on us with the light of Your pure day.
3.
You are the life, in which we do believe,
From You all substance and all strength receive;
Sustain us by Your faith and by Your power,
And give us strength in every trying hour.

4.
You have the true and perfect gentleness;
You have no harshness and no bitterness:
O grant to us the grace in You we see
That we may dwell in perfect unity.
5.
Our hope is in no other save in You;
Our faith is built upon Your promise true;
Lord, give us peace, and make us calm and sure,
That in Your strength we evermore endure.

John Calvin, 1509–64

vv. 2, 3

vv. 2-4

v. 2

1.
Holy, holy, holy, Lord God Almighty,
Early in the morning our song shall rise to Thee;
Holy, holy, holy, merciful and mighty,
God in three persons, blessed Trinity.

2.
Holy, holy, holy, all the saints adore Thee,
Casting down their golden crowns around the glassy sea;
Cherubim and seraphim falling down before Thee,
Which wert and art and evermore shall be.

3.
Holy, holy, holy, though the darkness hide Thee,
Though the eye of sinful man Thy glory may not see;
Only Thou art holy; there is none beside Thee
Perfect in power, love and purity.

4.
Holy, holy, holy, Lord God Almighty,
All Thy works shall praise Thy name in earth and sky and sea;
Holy, holy, holy, merciful and mighty,
God in three persons, blessed Trinity.

Reginald Heber, 1783–1826

LUCIUS 8.6.8.6

Probably from 'Templi Carmina', USA, 1829

1.
When all Thy mercies, O my God,
My rising soul surveys,
Transported with the view, I'm lost
In wonder, love, and praise.

2.
Unnumbered comforts on my soul
Thy tender care bestowed,
Before my infant heart conceived
From whom these comforts flowed.

3.
When in the slippery paths of youth
With heedless steps I ran,
Thine arm, unseen, conveyed me safe,
And led me up to man.

4.
Through hidden dangers, toils, and deaths,
It gently cleared my way;
And through the pleasing snares of vice,
More to be feared than they.

5.
When worn with sickness, oft has Thou
With health renewed my face,
And when in sins and sorrows sunk
Revived my soul with grace.

6.
Ten thousand thousand precious gifts
My daily thanks employ;
Nor is the least a thankful heart,
That takes those gifts with joy.

7.
Through every period of my life
Thy goodness I'll pursue;
And after death, in distant worlds,
Thy pleasing theme renew.

8.
Through all eternity, to Thee
A grateful song I'll raise;
But O eternity's too short
To utter all Thy praise!

Joseph Addison, 1672–1719

1.
Arise, my soul, arise,
Shake off thy guilty fears;
The bleeding Sacrifice
In my behalf appears;
Before the throne my Surety stands,
My name is written on His hands.

2.
He ever lives above
For me to intercede,
His all-redeeming love,
His precious blood, to plead;
His blood atoned for all our race,
And sprinkles now the throne of grace.

3.
Five bleeding wounds He bears,
Received on Calvary;
They pour effectual prayers,
They strongly speak for me;
Forgive him, O forgive! they cry,
Nor let that ransomed sinner die!

4.
The Father hears Him pray,
His dear Anointed One,
He cannot turn away
The presence of His Son;
His Spirit answers to the blood,
And tells me I am born of God.

5.
My God is reconciled,
His pardoning voice I hear,
He owns me for His child;
I can no longer fear,
With confidence I now draw nigh,
And Father, Abba, Father, cry!

Charles Wesley, 1707–88

337

STELLA 8.8.8.8.8.8

Melody from Hémy's
'Easy Hymn Tunes for Catholic Schools', 1851–53

1.
Would Jesus have the sinner die?
Why hangs He then on yonder tree?
What means that strange expiring cry
Sinners, He prays for you and me,
'Forgive them, Father, O forgive,
They know not that by Me they live!'

2.
He prays for those that shed His blood:
And who from Jesu's blood is pure?
Who hath not crucified his God?
Whose sins did not His death procure?
If all have sinned through Adam's fall,
Our Second Adam died for all.

3.
Adam descended from above
Our loss of Eden to retrieve,
Great God of universal love,
If all the world in Thee may live,
In us a quickening Spirit be,
And witness, Thou hast died for me.

4.
Dear, loving, all-atoning Lamb,
Thee by Thy painful agony,
Thy bloody sweat, Thy grief and shame,
Thy cross and passion on the tree,
Thy precious death, and life, I pray—
Take all, take all my sins away!

5.
O let me kiss Thy bleeding feet,
And bathe, and wash them with my tears;
The story of Thy love repeat
In every drooping sinner's ears,
That all may hear the quickening sound:
If I, even I, have mercy found!

6.
O let Thy love my heart constrain,
Thy love for every sinner free,
That every fallen soul of man
May taste the grace that found out me;
That all mankind, with me, may prove
Thy sovereign, everlasting love.

Charles Wesley, 1707–88

1.
Let earth and heaven agree,
Angels and men be joined,
To celebrate with me
The Saviour of mankind;
To adore the all-atoning Lamb,
And bless the sound of Jesu's name.

2.
Jesus, transporting sound!
The joy of earth and heaven!
No other help is found,
No other name is given
By which we can salvation have;
But Jesus came the world to save.

3.
Jesus, harmonious name!
It charms the hosts above:
They evermore proclaim,
And wonder at His love!
'Tis all their happiness to gaze,
'Tis heaven to see our Jesu's face.

4.
His name the sinner hears,
And is from sin set free,
'Tis music in his ears,
'Tis life and victory;
New songs do now his lips employ,
And dances his glad heart for joy.

5.
Stung by the scorpion sin,
My poor expiring soul
The balmy sound drinks in,
And is at once made whole.
See there my Lord upon the tree!
I hear, I feel He died for me.

6.
O unexampled Love,
O all-redeeming Grace!
How freely didst Thou move
To save a fallen race!
What shall I do to make it known
What Thou for all mankind has done?

7.
O for a trumpet voice
On all the world to call,
To bid their hearts rejoice
In Him who died for all!
For all my Lord was crucified;
For all, for all my Saviour died.

Charles Wesley, 1707–88

DIM OND IESU 8.7.8.7 D

Robert Lowry, 1826–99

The first system of musical notation consists of two staves. The upper staff is in treble clef and the lower staff is in bass clef. Both staves have a key signature of one sharp (F#) and a time signature of 3/4. The music is written in a style typical of 19th-century hymn books, featuring a mix of eighth and sixteenth notes, often beamed together, and rests. The melody in the upper staff is supported by a bass line in the lower staff.

The second system of musical notation consists of two staves, continuing the piece from the first system. It maintains the same key signature and time signature. The notation includes various rhythmic patterns and rests, with the upper staff providing the melodic line and the lower staff providing the harmonic accompaniment.

The third system of musical notation consists of two staves. The notation continues with similar rhythmic and melodic elements. There are some instances of longer note values, such as half notes, interspersed with the more active eighth and sixteenth notes.

The fourth system of musical notation consists of two staves, concluding the piece. The notation ends with a double bar line. The overall structure is a simple, four-measure phrase in 3/4 time.

Here is love, vast as the ocean,
Loving kindness as the flood,
When the Prince of Life—a ransom—
Shed for us His precious blood.
Who His love will not remember?
Who can cease to sing His praise?
He can never be forgotten
Throughout heav'n's eternal days.

2.
On the Mount of Crucifixion
Fountains opened deep and wide,
Through the flood-gates of God's mercy
Flowed a vast and gracious tide.
Grace and love, like mighty rivers,
Poured incessant from above,
And heaven's peace and perfect justice
Kissed our guilty world in love.

3.
Let me all Thy love accepting,
Love Thee ever, all my days:
Let me seek Thy Kingdom only
And my life be to Thy praise:
Thou alone shalt be my glory,
Nothing in the world I see:
Thou hast cleansed and sanctified me,
Thou Thyself hast set me free.

4.
In Thy truth Thou dost direct me,
By Thy Spirit through Thy Word,
And Thy grace my need is meeting,
As I trust in Thee, my Lord.
All Thy fullness Thou art pouring
In Thy love and power in me,
Without measure, full and boundless,
As I yield myself to Thee.

2.
I know not how to pray, O Lord,
O'erwhelmed by grief am I,
Lord Jesus in Your wondrous love
You hear my anxious cry
And ever pray for me.

3.
I know not how to pray, O Lord,
For full of tears and pain
I groan, yet in my soul, I know
My cry is not in vain.
O teach me how to pray!

Although I know not how to pray,
Your Spirit intercedes,
Convincing me of pardoned sin;
For me in love He pleads
And teaches me to pray.

5.
O take my wordless sighs and fears
And make my prayers Your own.
O put Your prayer within my lips
And lead me to God's throne
That I may love like You.

6.
O draw me to Your Father's heart,
Lord Jesus, when I pray,
And whisper in my troubled ear,
'Your sins are washed away.
Come home with Me today!'

7.
At home within our Father's house,
Your Father, Lord, and mine,
I'm lifted up by Your embrace
To share in love divine
Which floods my heart with joy.

8.
Transfigured by Your glory, Lord,
Renewed in heart and mind,
I'll sing angelic songs of praise
With joy which all can find
In You alone, O Lord.

9.
I'll love You, O my Father God,
Through Jesus Christ, Your Son.
I'll love You in the Spirit, Lord,
In whom we all are one,
Made holy by Your love.

349(i)

For it was fitting that we should have such a high priest, holy, blameless, unstained, separated from sinners, exalted above the heavens (Hebrews 7:26).

1.
Holy! Holy! Holy! is our High Priest, Jesus,
Holiness becomes this One whom heaven and earth adore.
By His blood we're holy, sanctified for ever,
In Him made perfect, now and ever more.

2.
Blameless! Blameless! Blameless! Fit to offer blameless
Sacrifice of purging love that sets our conscience free.
Through His blood we're blameless—not by our endeavour—
So then we worship to eternity.

3.
Stainless! Stainless! Stainless! Never knew defilement,
All His heart and mind were pure and ever now shall be.
We have hearts now pure, this His gift of loving,
Grateful we adore Him in new purity.

4.
Exalted to the heavens; there a priest for ever,
Always interceding for all our daily needs.
Father ever loving has for ever made Him
High Priest of love for all eternity.

5.
Let us now go with Him to the Holy Father,
In the inner sanctuary of the house of God.
This is now our dwelling—Eden in its glory;
All the nations gather in true liberty.

6.
Holy! Holy! Holy! Father, Son and Spirit,
Perfect in all ages unto eternity.
Hearts now filled with glory tell the Endless Story,
Live we and worship in the Holy Three.
